STEINWAY & SONS' PIANOS.

LETTER FROM DR. FRANZ LISZT, THE GREATEST LIVING TONE-MASTER.

WEIMAR, November, 1883.

MR. STEINWAY:

MOST ESTEEMED SIR:—Again I owe you many and special thanks. The new Steinway Grand is a glorious masterpiece in power, sonority, singing quality and perfect harmonic effect, affording delight even to my old piano weary fingers. Ever continuing success remains a beautiful attribute of the world-renowned firm of Steinway & Sons.

In your letter, highly esteemed sir, you mention some new features in the Grand Piano, viz.: The vibrating body being bent into form out of one continuous piece, and that portion of the strings heretofore lying dormant, being now a part of and thus incorporated as partial tones into the foundation tones. Their utility is emphatically guaranteed by the name of the inventor.

Owing to my ignorance of the mechanism of piano construction, I can but praise the magnificent result in the "volume and quality of sound."

In relation to the use of your welcome tone sustaining pedal, I inclose two examples: "Danse des Sylphes," by Berlioz, and No. 3 of my "Consolations."

I have to-day noted down only the introductory bars of both pieces, with this proviso, that, if you desire it, I shall gladly complete the whole transcription, with exact adaptation of your tone sustaining pedal. Very respectfully and gratefully,

F. LISZT.

SKILLFUL STRATEGY.

It is said of William of Orange that his ability as a military strategist was such that he was enabled to turn every defeat into victory. Our new evening contemporary reminds one of William, but only so far as he tries to make it appear that he has won a "famous victory," when, in reality, it is apparent he has sustained a disastrous defeat. Hence he is found heading his recent articles on the Burrard Inlet question thus: "Throws Up the Sponge," "Dodging the Question," "A Complete Backdown," etc.—all three being preludes to rollicking editorials in reply (!) to articles that had appeared in this journal on the Burrard Inlet reserve matter. We are not aware that we have dodged any question, or that we have backed down; and if we had thrown up a sponge—were it but a moderate sized one—we feel sure that our system would still have painful knowledge of the fact. The Colonist has said that it declined to discuss the Burrard Inlet reserve matter from a newspaper standpoint, meaning that it did not consider that a question so grave should be lost sight of in a newspaper squabble. This was said because for two evenings the Times—not venturing to repeat its charges or even to defend its absurd misstatements—had devoted its pen to a criticism of The Colonist So long as our contemporary adhered to that line it would have been a waste of time to continue the discussion. But last night he repeated all the wild statements made respecting the government policy. It is now more than ever apparent that when the Times wrote his first article he did not know that nearly all the land included in the reserve was covered by the Hastings' Sawmill Co's lease. He was misled by his informant; and when his attention had been called to the fact it was his duty to have withdrawn his statement. Instead of doing that he has gone from bad to worse. Now, in spite of all that our contemporary has said we contend that the land, outside of the timber reserve, is generally unfit for cultivation, that it is only valuable for speculative purposes, and that it is very limited in extent. In two years' time the leased land will revert to the government; then will be the time for the Times to raise its voice and wield its pen in support of its scheme for throwing open the land. It may happen in the course of a few weeks that events will so shape themselves that it will then be deemed advisable to place the land on the market; but at present neither the condition of the real estate market nor the exigencies of the Times calls for that step to be taken. Our friend may strut upon a superstructure raised on error and credulity; but all his fuss and feathers will not alter facts nor dragoon the government into the belief that upon the throwing open of these particular lands depends the salvation of the country.

FRANCE AND CHINA.

There is a lull in the state of affairs between France and China. Matters are now at a stand-still to outward appearance, though negotiations are constantly being carried on between the two governments. Outside nations are watching with interest for [illegible] what form they will take. A few months ago it seemed as if all trouble were over. After the capture of Bacninh and Sontay in March, a treaty was arranged by which France assumed protection of Tonquin, and China agreed to evacuate certain towns and garrisons. This treaty has since been broken, with the customary treachery of the Chinese, by an attack on the French forces at Langoon, June 23, in which ten of the French were killed, and thirty-three wounded. This caused the greatest indignation in France, and the government have declared their intention of exacting the fullest indemnity from China for the outrage. The sum asked is 250,000,000 francs, with the island of Formosa as a guarantee. The Chinese embassador attempted to convince the French that the Chinese government were not responsible for the breach of treaty, but M. Ferry rejected any such evasion and demands the payment of the indemnity. Whether the Chinese will pay the required sum, or give up Formosa is not known. If these terms are not complied with, war will certainly be resumed, and this seems the most probable event. It would be useless for China to attempt to cope with a European power, but from recent advices by way of San Francisco, they are reported to be making all preparations to do so. A tax has been levied on all the Chinese in America to assist in preparing for war, and active preparations are going on in China. It is worthy of note that three war ships were lately built in Germany for the Chinese government, and have been sent to the seat of war under German commanders who have been hired by China for three years. The struggle is near at hand, the latest news is that the French minister at Tien Tien has demanded the withdrawal of Chinese troops from the frontiers of Tonquin, and the payment of the indemnity, and that this demand has been refused. The time allowed by France for compliance with the demands expired July 7th, so war may be looked for immediately.

THE CHURCH AND REFORM.

Among the possible results of the franchise bill which may influence the lords in their treatment of the measure is the effect it might have on the Established Church. The franchise bill would make about two million voters. These being enfranchised by a reform bill and belonging to the industrial class, would probably range themselves on the side of reform. Now the two great objects of the English radicals are land reform and disestablishment of the national church. It would not be surprising if, with a new franchise bill, the latter project were carried out at no distant day. Though even the thought of such an event will be unwelcome to the majority of English churchmen, the result might not be so disastrous as would be supposed. Disestablishment has been brought about in Ireland without any serious results, and the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States corresponds to the Eeglish Church in all essential particulars except state alliance. Self-supporting churches are generally successful. The voluntary system is the only one recognized in the United States, Canada or Australia, where the growth of churches has been remarkable. The Established Church of Scotland is not as strong to-day as the Free Church, which refuses all state aid. However, the franchise bill has not yet passed the house of lords, and the struggle on the church question, if it is to come, has been delayed.

THE BOUNDARY AWARD.

The disturbing question of the Ontario boundary award has reached the Imperial privy council, and that body has decided that the award of the boundary commissioners was not final. It will be fresh in the reader's mind that the award of the commissioners was set aside by the Dominion government which then conveyed to the province of Manitoba a considerable tract lying between Ontario and Manitoba. Last summer the Ontario government took possession of the conveyed territory. Their action was resisted by Manitoba, and after a display of much bitterness, it was arranged to refer the whole matter to the privy council. The contention of Ontario was that the award of the commissioners was final. The Dominion government claimed that it had power to set aside the award. The decision of the privy council sustains the Dominion government. The case is now proceeding on its merits, and the privy council will fix the limits.

TORONTO, July 9.—A clever forgery by R. A. Coleman, barrister, has just come to light by which the Central Bank is the loser by $2,300. A few weeks ago Coleman applied to Blake & Co. for a loan on real property belonging to his wife, held under the will of her father. Coleman was advanced $2,300; but it was discovered that the signatures of her father's executors, as consenting parties, were fraudulent. He was requested to refund the money advanced and gave a check for the amount marked good on the Central Bank. Some days afterwards the Bank of Commerce received from the Central a check for $4,940, ostensibly drawn by Blake & Co., in favor of Coleman, which was pronounced as a forgery and repudiated by that firm. An investigation showed that Coleman, to obtain a check for $2,300, given by him to Blake & Co., posted a forged check, thereby securing the money to cover up his crooked dealing in the loan matter. Coleman has disappeared.

MONTREAL, July 8.—The assets of the firm of Cassels, Simpson & Co. were sold this morning, and bought at the small sum of $7,000.

HALIFAX, July 8.—City stipendiary magistrate Pryor received a threatening letter this morning, bearing a one cent stamp. The address and letter were of words cut from print and neatly pasted upon the paper. The letter was a terse command to stop the liquor license convictions under the Dominion act. Beneath were the names of the chief inspector and his agent, the prosecuting counsel, and the judge, each enclosed in a coffin mark. This is the second letter of this nature received by the stipendiary, and shows a feeling of intolerance against the new Dominion act. The victim treats it as a joke, but is somewhat nervous at the repeated threats.

MONTREAL, July 8.—The jury in the case of the fatal row on Chaboillez square, in which John Callagaan was killed, brought in a verdict of "excusable homicide" against the accused, McDonald.

TORONTO, July 9.—The printers' strike continues so far as the Globe and Mail offices are concerned where the employers still hold out. The former seems to be in much the better position of the two. The Mail again issues this morning a four-page sheet made up largely of advertising. The Globe has an eight-page paper as usual. Both offices claim to be in a better position ever since the strike, and to be able to get along without giving in to the strikers. The men are still orderly, and profess confidence of ultimate success. The Mail has had the strikers' pickets arrested, so as to have no hindrance in getting non-union printers into the office.

QUEBEC, July 9.—Hon. Mr. Caron has been promised the lieutenant-governorship.

OTTAWA, July 8.—It is stated that W. A. Beddoe contemplates a suit for $50,000 damages against the Canadian Pacific railway in connection with the Manitoba Southwestern railway.

HALIFAX, July 9.—The National Division of the Sons of Temperance of America opened their fortieth session to-day. The increase in membership was 10,707 for last year.

QUEBEC, July 9.—A. Legris, Jos. Pilon and J. B. Elice were to-day convicted of bribery at the Soulanges election in October, 1882. Justice Matthieu condemned them severally to pay $400 fine and costs, and disqualified them for eight years.

OTTAWA, July 7.—Judge Lefontaine, of Alymer, died to-day, aged 74.

The woollen factory and machinery of the insolvent estate of Joseph Conture, of Stanbridge, which is valued at $30,000, has been seized for an infraction of the customs laws.

The half-yearly dividend on the capital stock of the Canadian Pacific Railway Co., at the rate of three per cent. per annum, and secured under agreement with the government, will be paid to the stockholders on the 18th August. The company has declared a dividend at the rate of two per cent. on the earnings of the road, to be paid on the same date.

The Hon. J. H. Pope, minister of agriculture, and acting minister of railways, has been subpœnaed to appear before the Royal Commissioner in Toronto, appointed to enquire into a conspiracy formed during the last session of the legislature for buying up several members of the assembly. The minister was considerably taken by surprise when the deputy sheriff placed a subpœna and $10 in his hands for his expenses, but, all the same, he promised to be present on the 14th inst.

ST. IGNACE, July 5.—During the boat races to-day, which were postponed from yesterday, on account of rain, Mason's Mackinac boat was capsized by a squall, and four men in the boat were drowned. The names of the men are:

Floyd W. Miner, of the firm of Hulet & Miner, druggists. He leaves a widow and two children.

John Strong is said to have a family in Canada.

John Spickerman leaves a widow and child.

The tugs Simmons, Hancock and Saugatuck and steamers Algoma and Lady May went in search of the bodies, but could find nothing. Flags are at half-mast over the city.

On Friday Mr. Thos. McCreight, sr., the oldest man in Huron county, died at his residence in the township of Turnberry, at the advanced age of 104 years. He was born in Ireland in 1780, and up to a year or two of his death was a strong, healthy man, and was one of the oldest settlers in the township. After his spirit had taken its flight, his two sons, John and Thomas, left with the intention of coming to Wingham to make arrangements for their father's funeral. Shortly after they had started the horses ran away, throwing both occupants out of the wagon. John, who was 70 years of age, was pitched upon a stick of wood, breaking his nose and seriously injuring him about the head and body, and Thomas received severe injuries about the back. Assistance was soon at hand and they were conveyed home. John lived until Saturday afternoon, when he died from the effect of the injuries he had received. It is probable that his brother will recover.

LEASE OF THE O. R. & N.

President Harris Says the Northern Pacific Will Secure It.

(Portland Oregonian.)

"Please let the public know through the Oregonian what truth, if any there is, in the rumor that the Northern Pacific has secured a lease of the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company's transportation system?" asked a reporter of this paper yesterday of Mr. Robert Harris, president of the Northern Pacific Railroad.

Setting himself back in one of the large arm chairs in the Esmond parlor, where the reporter had been received, Mr. Harris remarked: "It was this that caused me to come across the country a little more hastily than I had first intended. The matter of leasing the O. R. & N. road has been under consideration for some time, and such a step is approved by the directors of both companies. It awaits now only the settlement of details relative to the rental, etc.,

"May I ask upon what terms the lease is make?" asked the reporter.

"Substantially the same," answered Mr. Harris, "as were published some time since, viz.: the payment of fixed charges; 6 per cent interest the first year, 7 per cent the second and 8 per cent thereafter. This is the basis around which we are negotiating."

"When will negotiations probably be concluded?"

"That is hard to say. The negotiations cover a vast amount of property, nearly 700 miles of railroad, the steamship and steamboat line, docks, the interest in the Nordern Pacific Terminal Company, and minor properties. You see they involve a vast amount of clerical work, and nothing will be concluded that is not entirely satisfactory to both roads."

"How will this affect the building of the Cascades branch?"

"Not at all. It has always been the intention of the Northern Pacific to come to Portland and to Puget Sound. In 1800, with the great financial load of constructing 800 miles of road to complete the main line from the lakes to the Columbia river, the company found it to be its best interest to join with the O. R. & N., which was building from Wallwalla to Portland. These conditions are not changed. The Cascades division will be built. The land grant will sustain it during its infancy, until such time as the development of the country through which it passes will give it substantial support."

"How will the proposed lease affect the Oregon Short Line?"

"Not at all. The Union Pacific has a traffic contract for ten years with the Oregon Railway & Navigation company on almost the same terms as that made with the Northern Pacific in the fall of 1880. The only difference is that the Northern Pacific's is in perpetuity. For the next ten years the Union Pacific will come into Portland on precisely the same basis as the Northern Co., Pacific does now."

"How soon, do you think, the formal transfer of the Oregon Railway & Navigation will be made you?"

"Probably by the end of August."

"For what term of years?"

"Oh, it will be a marriage for weal or for woe." Probably 99 years."

Mr. Harris, asking the reporter to lay down his note-book, spoke in most enthusiastic terms of the future of Oregon and Washington, comparing them to Iowa, Wisconsin and Illinois as they were thirty years ago, and expressing the firm conviction that he would see the same development here that he has seen there.

THE JUDGE'S LITTLE WIFE.

She Disappears, But He would not Believe Her Unfaithful.

The young wife of Judge W. H. Stanton, of Kansas City, recently disappeared and was supposed to have eloped, but the judge did not believe that she was unfaithful to him. He writes to a friend as follows: everything is even worse than imagined. My poor darling was insane during the last few weeks, as the result of neuralgia, and she disappeared. She lost a large sum of money that I left with her and it helped to make her mentally more excited. Then she got the wild notion that she must go out of the way of some imaginary danger, and she gave away, I may say, not sold, harness, horses, silver sets, tablecloths, and all the bed clothes to raise about $60 to go on this journey and yet no one has seen her go.

To MY WILLIE: Love, good-bye, my darling husband; You are the only love I have ever had, So good-bye, my angel love. From you heart-broken little girl-wife, Anna. With all of my kisses and love I am yours forever in heart. God bless you, darling!

She Said in another note:

So good-bye forever, darling. Take good care of my poor little babies. Oh, my darling, my brain is mad and my heart is broken. Kiss my babies every night From your heart-broken little girl-wife, ANNA.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE EXPLOSION WHICH OCCURRED IN THE Wellington Collieries on the 30th ultimo thereby causing the death of 23 persons, has left almost destitute seven families, consisting of widows and nearly thirty children. Voluntary subscriptions have been forwarded to aid those in distress, and a Central Committee has been formed who will thankfully receive contributions or communications in reference to the same

An earnest appeal is now made to the sympathizing throughout the Province, and wherever willing contributions can be raised, to come forward and aid in placing these widows and children above want.

The British barque Moravian, Lessing, from Littleton, New Zealand, via San Francisco, left the latter port on the 11th for Victoria.

THE CIRCUS PARADE.—Yesterday morning the long anticipated circus parade came off, the whole force turning out for a free ride through the principal streets of the city, to the great satisfaction of the inhabitants. The band carriage drawn by eight horses, the caparisoned horses with the ring performers in gorgeous costume, the cages of the menagerie and the vans with curious specimens of animated nature on their roofs followed by mounted Arabs, elephants and camels, all proved a salutary consolation stakes to those who had not the magic $1.50 to see the circus at home. It is impossible not to admire the enterprise of the proprietors in transferring such a mass of animals and material by water, considering the short stay they can make in any one place.

ARREST.—Yesterday when the steamer Olympian came in from Port Townsend, officers Flewin, Stewart and Hoosen were in waiting, and as the two Chinaman engaged in the late abduction adventure, stepped ashore, arrested them. Their case will come up at the police court probably this morning.

NEW SHOP.—Conlin & Cameron, blacksmiths and horseshoers, have removed to their new shop on Pandora street, opposite the city hall.

That Charles Crocker sold oranges and newspapers when he was nine years old. Afterwards he was a blacksmith, and got his first start in California by keeping a store in the mines.

Cole's Mammoth Circus.

At the opening of the circus tent yesterday afternoon another large crowd poured in to see the wonders exhibited and the remarkable feats of man and beast. In the evening a rain was falling, but this did not deter still another full house, although no doubt many remained away on account of the wet. Several features that were not given on the previous day were introduced, the female trapezists being especially good, while the walking on the ceiling by Mlle. Aimee was an especially daring and difficult feat. All the points of the previous day were gone through in even better form and were as highly applauded. The Arabs were again excellent, and the bareback riding could not be excelled. After the programme commenced in the circus tent, the menagerie tent was taken down and the animals embarked on board the steamer, as were also the side shows, and in a little over an hour after the performance in the large tent were finished, the canvas and appointments was packed, and the two days' wonder was gone. Many a citizen saw such an exhibition for the first time, and it will be a red letter day in their lives as well as the small boys. The affair has been a decided success, and we have heard of no complaints about the quality of the performance, or the actions of the employes. The managers have been courteous and obliging, and there is nothing but good to say of all. The steamer Yosemite started at a very early hour this morning for Nanaimo where they show to-day, and to-morrow at New Westminster.

THE GREELEY EXPEDITION.

Seven Survivors Rescued.

LIEUT. MARKHAM'S FEAT OUTDONE.

(Exclusive to The Colonist.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 17.—The Acting Secretary of the Navy has received the following telegram from St. Johns this morning stating that the Greeley relief expedition has found the survivors of the Greeley party. The survivors number seven in all. The names are Lieutenant Greeley, Sergeant Brainard, Sergeant Fredericks, Sergeant Long, Sergeant Ellison, Hospital Steward Bisberbach and Private Cornell. They were found by the relief ships Thetis and Bear, five miles off Cape Sabin. Sergeant Ellison was very badly frost-bitten, and died at Goodhaven, July 6th, after undergoing a surgical operation. Relief ships Thetis and Bear with survivors are now at St. Johns. The remainder of the party died of starvation.

ST. JOHNS, July 11.—For the first time in three centuries England yields the honor of "further north." Lieutenant Lockwood and Sergeant Brainard, on May 13th, reached Lockwood Island, latitude 83 deg 24 min., longitude 44 deg. 58 min. They saw from a 2,000-feet elevation no land to the north northwest, but to the northeast Greenland extended till lost to view in Cape Robert Lincoln, latitude 83 deg., 35 min. Lieutenant Lockwood was turned back in 1883 by the open North Greenland Sea, the shore party barely escaping drifting into the polar ocean. Dr. Pavy, in 1882, in following Markham's route, was adrift one day in the Polar ocean, north of Cape Joseph. Henry and myself escaped to land abandoning nearly everything. In 1882 I made spring and summer trips into the interior of Grinnelland, discovering Lake Hazen, about 60 by 100 miles in extent, which is fed by the North Grinnelland, and drains Ruggles river. Brainard succeeded in crossing Grinnelland, and 90 miles from Bearateux Bay, head of Archer fiord, struck the head of a fiord from the Western sea, temporarily named by Lockwood Greeley fiord. From the centre of the fiord in lat. 80m 30s, long. 76m 30s, we saw that the northern shore terminated some 30 miles west, and that the southern shore extending some 50 miles south, apparently separate the land from Grinnelland. I have named the new land Arthur. In March, 1884, Lieut. Long, while hunting, looked from the north-west side of Mount Careti to Hays' Sound, seeing on northern coast, three capes, westward of the furtherest seen by Nares in 1876. The sound extends 20 miles further west than shown by the English chart; but it is possibly shut in by land which showed up across the western end. All explorations retreat to Cape Sabin and were accomplished without loss of life, disease, serious accident or frost bites. No scurvy was experienced at Conger; but one death occurred from it last winter.

(Sigded) GREELEY, Commander.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., July 17.—To Chief Signal Office at Washington:—Brainard, Wirdenbeck, Connell, Fredericks, Long and myself, the sole survivors, arrived to-day, having been rescued at the point of death from starvation by the relief ships, Thetis and Bear, on June 22d, at Camp Clay, northwest of Cape Sabin. All are now in good health, but weak. Sergt. Ellison, one of the rescued, died July 8th; Cross died last Saturday; Christensen, Rice, Lockwood, Jewell and Edwards, in April; Ellis, Wiston, Wistler and Israel, in May; Kayslingbury, Salor, Henry, Bender, Rany, Gardiner and Schneider, in June. Abandoned Fort Conger, Aug. 9th; got frozen in ice pack off Victoria Head, Aug. 26th; abandoned steam launch, Sept. 11th, eleven miles northeast of Cocked Hat Island. When on the point of landing we were driven by a snowstorm into Kane's sea, and finally landed, Sept. 29th, in Baird Inlet. Learning by scouting parties of the Proteus disaster, and that no provisions had been left for us from Cape Isabella to Sabin Melville; established winter quarters at Camp Clay, half way between Sabin and Cocked Hat. An inventory showed that by daily ration 4⅓ ounces of meat, seven ounces of bread and dog biscuits, and four ounces miscellaneous food. The party would have ten days full rations left for crossing Smith's Sound to Littleton island. Seaweed, sassafrass rock, lichens and seals were resorted to for food, with results as shown by a number of survivors. When the last regular food was issued, May 14th, only 150 pounds of meat was left by Marlington. Compelled to send four men in November to obtain 144 pounds of English meat at Isabella. During the trip Ellison was frozen solid, both hands and feet, and lost them all, surviving, however, through a terrible winter and spring until July 8th. Capt. Schley and party forced their vessels from Navick through Melville Bay into north water at Cape York with the foremost whaler. They gained a yard whenever it was possible and always held it. Smith Sound was crossed and the party rescued during one of the most violent gales that had ever been known. The photographic proofs of the Eskimo relief and other things were necessarily abandoned. Thetis will remain here five days probably. (Signed)

GREELEY, Commanding.

English Comic Opera.

This morning the box plan for reserved seats for the coming season will be thrown open to the public at T. N. Hibben & Co.'s. The initial opera will be Audran's chef d'ouvre Olivette. The Tivoli opera company have just closed a season of thirteen weeks in Portland, playing to immense business. In order that the performances here may be in every respect complete, the entire company, even to stage carpenter and property man, will visit Victoria. Mr. Lloyd, the stage carpenter, arrived yesterday with additional scenery, etc., and no stone will be left unturned to give perfect performances. The company, we are informed, numbers thirty-four people, and, notwithstanding the large business done by the circus, the houses should be crowded at every representation. The Mascot, Chimes of Normandy, Pinafore and the Grand Duchess are the other operas for the remainder of the week. We append cast of characters for Olivette:

Presentation.

On Friday evening last a number of the friends of Mr. John Rooney met at the banking office of M. Fleming for the purpose of presenting Mr. R. with a suitable souvenir, and to bid him farewell on the eve of his departure to fill a responsible position in connection with the mail service in British Columbia. Mr. Rooney has been for several years a citizen of Sarnia, employed as mail clerk on the G. T. R., and for the last two years also performing the duties of collector of taxes for the town of Sarnia. Although the notice accorded Mr. Rooney by the postoffice department was brief, and his departure somewhat hurried, rendering any elaborate expression of esteem and regret out of the question, the gathering on the above occasion was a thoroughly representative one. Mr. Fleming, mayor of the town, was requested to take the chair. He called upon Mr. Randall Kenny, who, in a few choice sentences expressed the general feeling of sorrow at the abrupt severing of the relations between Mr. Rooney and his fellow citizens of Sarnia; conveying also, on behalf of his friends, the most cordial good wishes for Mr. Rooney's future prosperity. At the close of his remarks Mr. Kenny presented Mr. Rooney with a handsome and valuable gold watch as a memento of the frendships he had formed during his residence here. Several other prominent citizens present made brief addresses expressing regrets at Mr. Rooney's departure and assuring him of their earnest desire to hear of his success in his new sphere of action. Mr. Rooney was very much surprised at the generous way in which his friends tendered him their farewells. In brief but expressive terms he returned them his heartfelt thanks and assured them that he would always remember Sarnia and the kind friends he left behind with feelings of sincere attachment.—Sarnia Observer, July 6th.

The Water Supply.

The project of gradually enlarging the mains on the principal streets of the city is already commenced, and a short time ago new four inch pipe was laid for some distance on Wharf street from the corner of Fort street, where a new hydrant was put down. Mr. Hendry is at present engaged in laying this same four-inch main from the corner of Store street, where there will also be a hydrant, along Johnson street to join the portion of the new main already laid on Wharf street. This four inch pipe connects with the old two-and a half inch main that now runs up Johnson street, which it will ultimately replace the whole length of the street. A four-inch main will be laid on Government, Johnson and Wharf streets, with a full supply of hydrants, while Yates street will have a five-inch main. The mains of Johnson, Yates and Fort streets will all be connected so that any hydrant in the system can draw its supply from any of these mains, or, in other words, the combined supply can be concentrated on any hydrant. Twelve hydrants in the central portion of the city will thus be in connection with each other, and all that is wanted is the proposed reservoir to insure a supply independent of any risk from the breaking of the mains. The smaller pipe taken up to be replaced by the larger mains will be used in the suburbs of the city. The experts consulted in regard to the water supply have already given in their report, which will be probably considered at the next regular meeting of the City Council.

We were glad to see the Rev. George Murray looking well after a long absence. He preached yesterday in his own church at the foot of the lake to a fair attendance.

The Dominion Government have accepted the resignation of Mr. Howse, the Indian Agent.

Alex. Gordon's team went into the Nicola river, five miles above the ferry, on Thursday. The road slid away and the four-horse team and driver did not stop till they found themselves in four feet of water. They escaped with some slight loss of freight. A horse was injured, and Gordon sustained some injury to his foot.

A man named Jos. Vedder broke his leg last week near Ashcroft.—Guardian.

Nanaimo.

(Free Press.)

On Friday A. Poppiwel dislocated his collar bone by trying to jump on a moving train on the Wellington track near Departure Bay. William Storey received severe injuries by falling off a moving train on the Wellington track on Saturday morning.

William Dunstan, a miner, employed at the No. 4 Shaft, Wellington colliery, was severely injured on Friday night by the premature explosion of a shot. It appears that he fired his "squib," retired and waited, as he thought a sufficient time for the shot to go, but on returning and when near the face, the shot exploded, injuring Dunstan quite severely about the head, face and shoulders.

On Saturday morning a Chinaman named Ah Kang, working for Hillis Coulter in the No. 4 shaft, Wellington colliery, was accidentally killed by getting jammed between the pillar and a turning box of coal.

The Abduction Case.

Thomas Saunders and William McKenzie, 'longshoremen, who were engaged in abducting three Chinese women over to the Sound into Washington Territory, were before Allen Weir, U. S. Commissioner, Port Townsend, on Tuesday last, and after a hearing were held to answer before the next term of the district court, to be held in Port Townsend in September next, in the sum of a thousand dollars each, and were remanded in default of bail to the custody of the Deputy U. S Marshal. The three Chinese women were also brought up, but, having no return certificates, they were handed over to Collector Bash and requested to return to Victoria.

Messrs. J. P. Walls and T. B. Humphreys watched the case on behalf of the Chinese merchants.

BARCLAY SOUND EXCURSION.—This afternoon, at 5 o'clock, the steamer Sardonyx, Captain Warren, will leave Spratt's wharf for Alberni, Barclay Sound. Quite a number have availed themselves of this opportunity, and there will be few, if any, vacant berths. As already stated, the Sardonyx will remain over Saturday and Sunday, and return early on Monday morning. This is a chance not to be lost.

FIRST-CLASS CERTIFICATE.—Mr. Robt. J. Plummer of this city has obtained a first-class certificate from the school of gunnery, after a highly satisfactory examination.

GOVERNMENT GUIDE.—Mr. Halpenny sails on the Sardonyx to-day for Alberni with a party of settlers in search of land.

THE NORTHERN PACIFIC'S PRESIDENT.

He Visits Seattle.

A private telegram to the Chronicle last night from Tacoma announces that President Harris, of the Northern Pacific railroad, and friends, will leave that town at 8 o'clock this morning, in private cars, and reach this city about 9:30 o'clock. There will be no public demonstration, Mr. Harris' object being solely to see for himself in Seattle, that which has been brought to his attention on numerous occasions, namely, the great commercial metropolis of Puget Sound. His visit will be necessarily brief. The clerk of the weather has laid the dust, propitiously, and the drives about the city will be in fine condition for the guests.—Chronicle.

AN ELEPHANT ON THE TEAR.—Last night the Hudson Bay Co.'s wharves and sheds were ablaze with lamps for the shipping of the circus, and the scene was a very picturesque one. It suddenly became, however, rather exciting. The second largest elephant, chained to a she elephant, was being shipped on board the Yosemite when it was found they could not pass along together. The chain was loosed and the she elephant allowed to go on first, as a lady should. This, or the fancied insecurity of the gang plank immediately enraged his royal highness and he broke away. Fortunately there was a rope and chain attached to his leg which were seized by a number of men, who were dragged pell mell after him, keeper and all. Mr. Simpson, an employee of the H. B. Co., with his wife and child had a narrow escape; on the first alarm they ran toward the gate leading to the next wharf, when the elephant made a bolt that way. A dog at his heels, however, distracted him, and flourishing his trunk over their heads he started off between the warehouses, smashing in doors and windows till he came to the entrance to the basement of the H. B. Co.'s store, the doors of which he immediately smashed in, threatening to bring down the staging above. A good force was now got on to the chain and rope, and by tickling him in front with a three pronged fork his highness was at last got on board, fortunately without having hurt anybody.

VICTORIA BOYS IN ONTARIO.—Masters Chas. Lowen and Geo. Powell, of this city, have successfully passed into Trinity University of Toronto. Master Lowen came third, taking honors and a $100 scholarship. Master Powell came fifth upon the list, which shows a high record for his past studies. The two young gentlemen and their friends are to be complimented upon their success, and it is sincerely hoped that their future careers may be as brilliant in the university as it has been at the college they were attending.

THE DRAINS.—Attention has been called more than once to the state of the drains of this city, which is anything but perfect. The stench arising from a few of the principal streets is enough to cause infectious diseases, from which our city should be free. In case the cholera visits this province, how great would be the sacrifice of human life! It is to be hoped that steps will be taken at once to have the present drains attended to, pending the construction of proper sewers.

THE CROPS.—From Saanich and Metchosin the grain and root reports are excellent. Many of the fields will yield abundantly. On the lower Fraser everything looks well—grain, hay and roots Crops on the Island and along the lower Fraser will be about average in spite of the drought.

SETTLERS FOR ALBERNI.—Mr. J. C. Mollett and family, numbering seven persons, will leave by the Sardonyx to-day for Alberni, where they have taken up land. They are the proper persons for a new and growing country like this.

HOW TWO SMART YOUTHS ATTEMPTED A DYNAMITE SCARE.

With Unpleasant Results to Both.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

HAMILTON, July 4.—The parliamentary examination in the case of Joseph Dillabough, Hamilton correspondent of a Conservative paper in Toronto, took place at the Police Court to-day. The charge against him was that he had uttered a certain letter containing threats that certain persons known to him would destroy some of the public buildings, with intent to cause a breach of the peace. The letter was sent to the builder of the new postoffice and custom house on Saturday, and by him handed to the Chief of Police. The story of the connection of the letter was told in Court to-day. E. G. Wryde testified that on Friday evening of last week he was walking on King William street with the prisoner and reporter for the local Troy organ named Nichol. One of those two produced the letter, and did not know who was the principal in the affair. W. Nichol deposed that Dillabough showed him the letter on Friday night, and told him he intended to post it. They agreed that it would be a good joke. That letter was destroyed and a similar one was written in the Mail office next day, only Nichol and Dillabough being present. Nichol identified the envelope. Dillabough had told him to advise the recipient of the letter

THAT IT WAS A HOAX,

but the public were to suppose it was genuine. Witness did not tell the contractor as requested, and Dillabough was arrested. Their little game did not work, and instead of creating a scare one of them was locked up and the other went into the witness box to tell the story of the silly affair. After the evidence of the Chief of Police, Crown Attorney Crerar said that a very serious offence had been committed and the authorities put to great trouble by this letter, which, being anonymous, could not be distinguished from a bona fide warning. Mr. Carscallen, for the been proved, but rather it had been shown that the motive was anything but criminal. The Magistrate said:—"The acts of this young man are those of one who is non compos mentis. He seems to be crazy, and I have no doubt that in a way he has been a catspaw for others." Prisoner's counsel replied:—"That is so, Your Worship, and it will all come out." The prisoner was commited for trial at the next Assizes, and was bailed in $1,000.

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCHES TO THE COLONIST.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—J. Y. Wilson & Co., pork-packers, have assigned in favor of their creditors. No estimate is given of liabilities, but it is stated the firm will pay dollar for dollar.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—When the Sharon case opened this morning, Judge Sullivan rendered his decision on the question of chemically testing the ink in the body of the marriage contract. He said he would not order the test to proceed except by consent of both parties. Objection being made no test was allowed. General Barnes, counsel for defense, then announced the closing of the case for the defense. An adjournment was taken until Monday morning, as the plaintiff was taken by surprise by the sudden action of the defendant, and had no witnesses present in court.

EASTERN STATES.

MEADVILLE, Pa., July 17.—At Conneaut lake regatta the men got off in good style, but Teneyck of Peekskill, N. Y., gained the lead before rounding the buoy, and won the race in 21:31; Priddy, second; Riley, third; Hosmer, fourth; Layberger, fifth; Lee, sixth: Hamm, seventh.

NEW YORK, July 17.—The executive committees of the Baltimore & Ohio and Postal and Bankers' and Merchants' Telegraph companies met last night and agreed upon the details of a pooling arrangement for 25 years.

CANADA.

ST. JOHN, N. B., July 17.—The New Brunswick cotton mills, doing business under the name of Parks & Sons, suspended work. Parks is obliged to ask his creditors for an extension. Liabilities about $225,000 largely secured. Assets estimated at over $400,000. About 300 persons have been employed. It is expected that work will be resumed within a fortnight.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, July 17.—In the house of commons this afternoon, Lord Edmond Fitzmaurice, under foreign secretary, said England had agreed to demand of the Rajah of Tenom the surrender of the crew of the steamer Nisero which was wrecked on the coast of Sumatra. If he refused to comply he would be punished; if he consented he would receive a money payment and his ports would be opened.

CHINA.

SHANGHAI, July 17.—The Chinese government are providing for the safety of Chinese merchant vessels in the event of war between China and France.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 17.—The case of Frank E. Hutchins, who strangled Nettie Hutchins last night, was called to-day in the police court for preliminary hearing and continued till Monday.

DELAYED DISPATCHES.

EUROPE.

PARIS, July 15.—Prime Minister Ferry has apologized to the German ambassador for the insult offered to the German flag

MADRID, July 15.—During a hurricane in the Phillipine Islands the Spanish iron clad Gravine was wrecked Two officers and seven of the crew were lost.

PARIS, July 15.—The foreigner who spat upon the French flag in the Place Concorde yesterday afterwards escaped from the crowd, has been arrested and an inquiry has been ordered. He is a German theological student.

VIENNA, July 16.—The police have been ordered to arrest all Mormon missionaries detected in endeavoring to secure converts. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of missionary Paul Hammer of Nevada.

CANADA

QUEBEC, July 16.—Although the courts refused to extradite John C. Eno, and ordered his liberation, American detectives are still watching the movements of this former millionaire. He cannot walk the streets without being shadowed.

CHINA.

SHANGHAI, July 16.—The French minister at Tien Tien demanded the withdrawal of Chinese troops fram the frontiers of Tonquin and payment of the indemnity asked by France. This demand was delivered to Tsung Li Yarnen, who rejected the time allowed to China by France for compliance. The time offered expired July 19th, and its rejection was apparently inevitable.

Sara Bernhardt Punished.

LONDON, July 8.—Members of the court and aristocratic circle have steadily kept aloof from the Gaiety theatre during Mlle. Sara Bernhardt's present engagement at that house. The fact has now transpired that a regular movement to boycott the irrepressible Parisienne has been set on foot, and that it has been instigated by no less a personage than H. R. H. the Prince of Wales. The Princess Alexandra, and others, were intensely disgusted by the volleys of filthy ephithets interchanged in the two lampoons published last winter by Marie Colombier and Sara Bernhardt.

The King of Grain Harvesters.

In the year 1883 there were 18,000 Deering Twine Binders sold, and for the present year of 1884 the manufacturers are making 25,000 of these celebrated machines. LORD ST. LEONARDS SENTENCED.

A Maniac in a Church.

NEW YORK, July 6.—A cable special says: Royalty is again quiet, the Queen having ordered the Prince of Wales to attend no theatres. Her Majesty gave an example of retiring from the vulgar gaze by keeping the railroad stations during her recent journey from Scotland as clear as if the Russian Czar was passing through a Nihilistic district. The people in Darmstadt are still complaining that when she was passing a station in Germany, where the people had prepared flags and bouquets, she pulled down the blinds in their faces. She has surprised everybody by doing the handsome thing by her granddaughter on her recent marriage by paying for her trosseau, while the Grand Duke Sergius delighted his bride with a parure of diamonds costing £20,000.

SEVEN WEEKS IN GOAL.

At the Old Bailey Lord St. Leonards was put forward to receive sentence for having committed an assault upon the servant girl, Emma Cole. The building was crowded long before the time of opening. Sir Robert Chambers delivered judgment, which was that the prisoner should suffer an imprisonment of seven weeks, which term should include the time already spent in gaol. As Lord St. Leonards was convicted on May 19 and had been in goal ever since, the sentence was a virtual discharge, as the term expires on Monday. Much surprise is manifested at the result of this case, and the lightness of the sentence is bitterly denounced.

A SINGULAR CASE.

Londonderry, Ireland, is greatly excited over the most scandalous affair which has yet cropped out from the Orange national feuds. During vespers in one of the Catholic churches, and while the priest was chanting the Magnificat, a man wild with excitement entered the church door and yelled at the top of his strong voice, "Look out, you —— papists." Then he ran with all his might down the center aisle, howling and cursing as he went. He reached the sanctuary rail before any of the frightened people could intercept him. With a bound he passed over the rail and ran up the steps to the altar. This he attacked and succeeded in breaking to fragments the benediction pieces standing outside the tabernacle. He then leaped on the altar table and cursed the people and priests. Disrobing himself of his coat, vest and pantaloons, he danced upon the altar, and then snatched up the Communion cloth and tore it to tatters with his teeth. The scene in the church was one of terrible excitement, and during the panic several women swooned. Finally the officiating priest and several of the men recovered their self-possession and rushed upon the intruder. He was hurled from the altar, and would have been torn limb from limb but for the interference of the priest. The man made a desperate resistance, and was not overcome until some police arrived and he was hancuffed. He had taken such a firm hold with his teeth upon the Communion cloth that it had to be cut away from his mouth. It was ascertained that he was of weak mind and had become hopelessly demented during the recent exciting political events in Derry. He was removed to the asylum.

As we are constantly adding new styles of type, work of the above description is turned out with neatness and despatch.

IN BOOK AND PAMPHLET PRINTING

We are prepared to print all classes of Books and Pamphlets, Seed Catalogues, By-Laws and Constitutions of Societies and other organizations. The type is clear cut, and the best of Book Ink and Paper are used, so that the printing will show up sharp and distinct.

IN COLORED PRINTING

We are enabled to do the very best of work, and can furnish all descriptions of small Colored printing in the most artistic manner.

IN LABEL PRINTING

We have facilities that are equal to any on the Pacific Coast. Our Presses are of the latest and most approved make; the inks used are of the very finest to be procured, while the workmen employed in this branch, are those of the greatest ability. Therefore we are in a position to furnish the handsomest Labels on the coast. Special attention is paid to this branch of the business, which is constantly growing.

A call from merchants and manufacturers desiring superior work at fair prices, is solicited, and satisfaction in all cases is guaranteed.

Orders by mail will receive prompt and careful attention.

☞ The attention of intending Assurers is called to the advantages specially offered by this Association.

THIS ASSOCIATION MERITS THE CONFIDENCE THAT THE PUBLIC IS REPOSING IN IT FROM THE FOLLOWING FACTS:

The Security offered to Policy-holders is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in Canada

It has no schemes of Insurance, but the well-established lines, hence the Policy-holders cannot be misled as to their contracts.

Its statements to the public can be readily understood, its cash statement showing every item of income and how expended.

Its position is ascertained annually from a detailed valuation in which every item of liability is included

Its progress has been unexampled in the history of insurance in Canada

Its policies are indisputable after three years and non-forfeitable after two years' existence.

Its profits are distributed upon an equitable basis. The profits to one class of policy-holders are not lessened to give larger profits to any other class, which method affords superior advantages over the uniform bonus plan of distribution.

☞ Liberal conditions as to residence and travel.
